Tulane University
Spring Orientation
Tuesday, January 9, 2018
Stibbs Room, 203 Lavin-Bernick Center for University Life (LBC)

8:30 – 9:00 AM
Orientation Check In
Check in for orientation in the Stibbs Room, 203 Lavin-Bernick Center for University Life (LBC)

9:00 – 9:10 AM
Welcome to Tulane
Dr. Smita Ruzicka, Assistant Vice President for Campus Life, and Josh Davis, Program Coordinator for New Student & Leadership Programs, will kick off Orientation.

9:10 – 9:35 AM
Campus Health
This session will provide information about health and wellness resources that will help you thrive during your Tulane experience.

9:35 – 10:00 AM
The Newcomb-Tulane College Experience
Molly Travis, Associate Dean of Newcomb-Tulane College, will review the undergraduate college academic programs and the unique learning opportunities at Tulane.

10:00 – 10:20 AM
Academic Advising Center
Brad Rhines and Shelby Siegel from the Academic Advising Center will talk about the core curriculum requirements and how the Advising Center will support you in your first year.

10:20 – 10:55 AM
Safety, Security, & Support
Learn tips for personal and community safety, review hurricane preparation guidelines, and understand the university’s expectation for student behavior.

Campus Resources
Below are some campus resources that will be open on Tuesday, January 9, 2018.

Accounts Receivable
Phelps House, Suite 103

Card Services (Splash Card)
LBC, 1st floor

Financial Aid
Science & Engineering Lab Complex

Mail Services
Bruff Commons, 1st floor

Technology Connection
LBC, 1st floor

Spring Activities Expo
Mark your calendars for the 2018 Spring Activities Expo from 5:00 – 7:00pm in Devlin Fieldhouse on Friday, January 26. Come learn about all the amazing involvement opportunities at Tulane and get a chance to hear about the 200+ organizations from other student leaders.

Panhellenic Council Recruitment
Be sure to check your Tulane email for the time and location of your Recruitment Kickoff Meeting. Your session time and location are based on your Recruitment Group.